

ADVANCED MACHINING LABORATORY

The department is supported by an advanced machining laboratory equipped with computer numerical control milling machine and lathe provided by Andhra Pradesh State Skill Development Centre worth of one crore rupees (approximately) to upgrade the machining skills of the students, also gives hands on experience to make the students industry ready and to ignite entrepreneurship attitude in the domain of production and manufacturing. The laboratory provides good practical exposure, research activities for both students and faculty. The laboratory is a handy tool for the department to move towards revenue generation for the institute in solving the problems of the local industry by providing them the components required with high dimensional accuracy

